Holiday Tournaments Open Tomorrow; 16 Teams Enter Bergen Tourney

Teaneck — The fifth annual Bergen County Coaches Wrestling Tournament with 192 grapplers representing 16 local high schools gets under way here at Teaneck High School gym tomorrow with afternoon and night sessions.

Tomorrow's sessions are slated to start at 1 P. M. and 8 P. M. Wednesday will also be a double session day with starting times set for 1 P. M. and 7 P. M.

Teams entered are Bergenfield, East Paterson, Englewood, Glen Rock, Fair Lawn, Hackensack, Hawthorne, Leonia, Demarest, Old Tappan, Paramus, Pascack Valley, Ridgewood, Teaneck, and Tenafly.

The battle for team honors has powerful Pascack Valley the favorite with the chief competition slated to come from River Dell, Fair Lawn, Glen Rock, and host Teaneck.

The tourney should also give a good indication as to the outstanding individual wrestlers.

The battle for honors in the 98-pound class shapes up between Bill Stern of Teaneck and Bill Silverman of River Dell.

The competition at 106 pounds should be outstanding. Laird Richmond of Fair Lawn, George Gesualdo of Bergenfield, and Esain Banola of Hackensack head the class.

Regional finalists Jim Raftery of Fair Lawn is the man to beat at 115 pounds but should be pushed by Jim McIlwain of River Dell, John Kraus of Teaneck, Joe Bonilla of Bergenfield, John Shapiro of Leonia, and Tom Saia of Paramus.

Another top wrestler who is faced with outstanding competition is Ridgewood's Bob Whitaker at 123. Chuck Ciolino of East Paterson, Steve Price of Pascack Valley, Evan Rose of Leonia, and Ron Sharpiro of Paramus will be pushing last year's district finalist.

The 129-pound class shapes up as a 3-way fight between Lloyd Bern of River Dell, George Bennett of Fair Lawn, and John Comboa of Teaneck.

GIACCIO BACK

Regional finalist Matt Giaccio of Pascack Valley should rule the 141-pound class with Greg Huff of Pascack Valley in the same role at 148.

Glen Rock's Dave Crikelair has been established the favorite at 157 pounds, but will have tough competition from Mike Nielson of Paramus and Art Zimmerman of River Dell.

Footballer Pat Ford of Fair Lawn is the choice at 168 pounds but the 178-pound class should be a wide open battle. Ed Schattenberg of Pascack Valley, a regional finalist last year, Frank Capsouras of River Dell, Bernie Martin of Teaneck, Joe Amoruso of Fair Lawn, and Walt Shallcross of Hawthorne are all rated a chance at the title.

In the heavyweight class Glen Rock's Al Graf, a regional finalish last year, will be battling Mike Steinhart of Fair Lawn and Bob Gripp of River Deli.

Banola And Raftery Advance Into County Wrestling Semis

They're Only 1963 Champs To Stay In Contention

Teaneck — Esain Banola of Hackensack and Jim Raftery of Fair Lawn were the lone champions from last year to gain today's semi-final round of the Bergen County Holiday Wrestling Tournament.

Banola and Raftery are not defending champions, however, as each has moved up one weight class. The Comet ace is now at 106 pounds and Raftery has gone from 106 to 115.

In one of the highlights of the quarterfinal round, Ed Schattenberg of Pascack Valley defeated Bernie Martin of Teaneck, 7-3, to avenge his 4-3 loss to the Highwayman in last year's 178-pound final. Both were outstanding football players during the past season with Schattenberg making second-team All-County and Martin first team.

YERVANIAN BOWS

Another of the 1963 winners, Bernie Yervanian of Hackensack, did not fare too well. A 147-pounder last year, he found the 157-pound class more difficult as he dropped a 2-1 decision to Art Zimmermann of River Dell. Zimmermann later pinned Stew Levine of East Paterson to gain the semifinals.

Schattenberg and Raftery helped their teams to the top two positions in the point race. Pascack Valley leads with 21 and Fair Lawn has 20. Also well up in the standings are Leonia with 18, and Glen Rock and Hackensack with 17.
