BCCA George Jockish Holiday Tournament

Bergen Catholic Takes Home Yet Another County Crown

Dobish, Fill, Cocozzo and Cariddi Highlight Two-Day Meet

By Dennis Wilson

PARAMUS, December 28-29 — Bergen Catholic set a new record for the second consecutive year as the school captured their seventh straight BCCA George Jockish Holiday Tournament. Pascack Valley won five titles in a row on two occasions while Fair Lawn five-peated once.

The Crusaders nearly doubled the score of Lodi, who finished in second place, as BC had five wrestlers advance to championship matches; four emerged victorious.

Joe Trause became the first Crusader to make it to the top step on the podium. A sophomore, Trause reversed a loss in last year's 103-pound final when he outscored North Bergen's defending champion Bob Dabal, 10-5, in the 112-pound final.

Chris Battaglia picked up the gold medal in the 125-pound weight class, cruising to a 10-2 major decision over Paramus' Nick Herrick.

Matt Morgenstern and Spencer Kent posted back-to-back winning efforts. Morgenstern pulled out 9-7 thriller over Garfield's Frankie Buenafuente in the 145-pound final while Kent battled to a 6-4 victory over Dan Zotollo of Paramus in the 152-pound championship bout.

Keith Dobish won his third straight title by defeating BC's George Kocher, 5-2, in the 189-pound final. Dobish had recently signed his Letter of Intent with Rutgers.

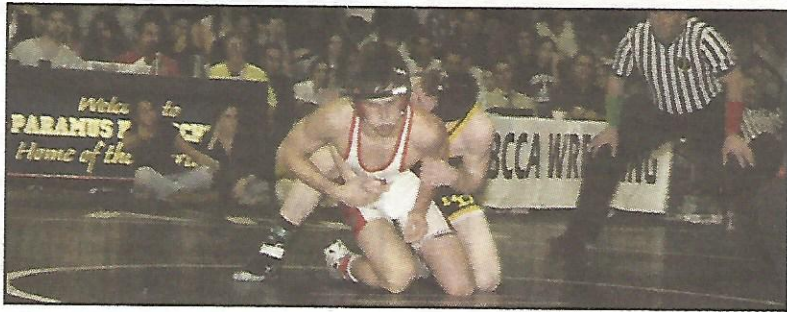

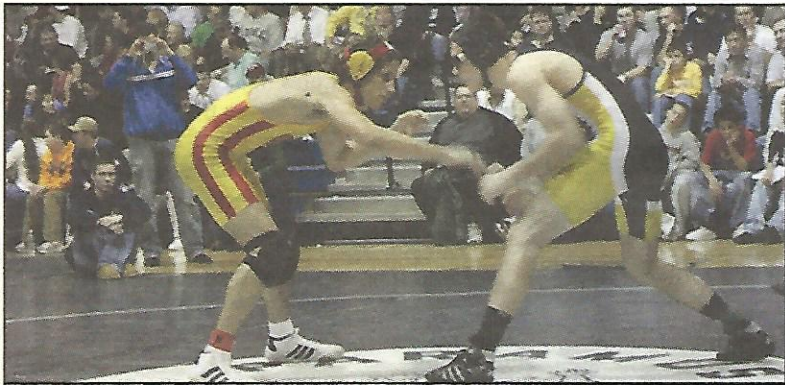

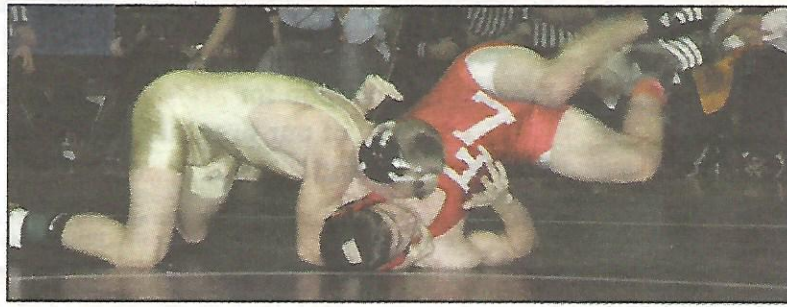

Bryan Fill of Hasbrouck Heights/Wood-Ridge turned in one of the most surprising results when he pinned North Bergen's returning regional champ Marquise Johnson in the 215-pound final.

Perhaps the best story of the two-day meet was River Dell's Daryl Cocozzo. Having taken silver three consecutive years, he finally got the gold he so badly wanted, recording the quickest pin of all the championship matches as he dispatched Dan Adamo of Northern Valley/Demarest 2:55 into their 140-pound confrontation.

If Cocozzo wasn't the best story, his teammate Tony Cariddi certainly was. Coming in as the 12th seed, the junior took down Northern Highlands' PJ Maio in overtime for a come-from-behind triumph, 11-9, in the 130-pound final. Cariddi was named the tournament's Most Outstanding Wrestler.

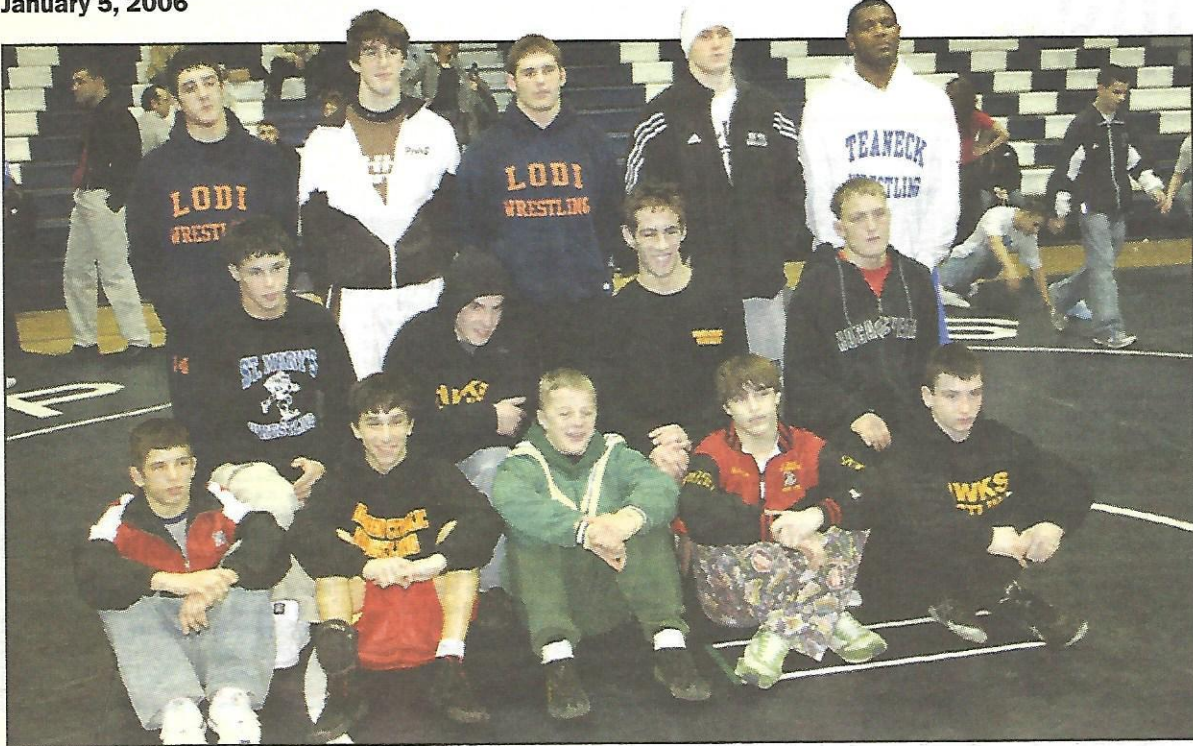

Along with Dobish, John Trumbetti of St. Joseph three-peated; Pascack Hills' Rick Eichenlaub and David Greenwald of St. Mary/Rutherford won their second titles. ■
