Mat Crown To Pascack

By BOB WHITING
Staff Writer

TEANECK — Pascack Valley retained its team title in the 11th annual Holiday Wrestling Tournament last night. The Indians clinched the honors in the 16-school event sponsored by the Bergen Coaches Association during the semifinal round, and finished with 78 points.

New Milford edged Englewood, 50-46, for the runner-up trophy, while Westwood finished strong to tie Passaic Valley for fourth place with 35 points each. Only Bogota of the 16 schools finished with a minus score.

The outstanding wrestler trophy went to River Dell's Mike Tfank, a choice that found much favor with the capacity crowd. There was more action in the 148-pound final between Tfank and Dick Cliggott of Pascack Valley than in all other bouts put together. Tfank won the decision, 18-11, in a match that had the fans in an uproar throughout.

Tfank rushed into a 7-2 lead in the first two-minute period, but Cliggott outscored him 7-5 in the second period to narrow the margin to 12-9. Tfank again held the upper hand in the third period to widen his edge to seven points in the action-packed bout.

Pascack placed seven men in the finals during the afternoon semis, and had 72 points to 40 for second place New Milford at that point. But the Indians could win only two titles, with Howie Bowler edging Chris Farley of Bogota at 141 pounds, 4-3, and Gene Santoli getting the referee's decision over Rich Boyle of Westwood in a double overtime unlimited match.

New Milford finished with three champions after placing four men in the finals. The Knights got off to a running start when Dave Finklestein and Keith Thornbloom won at 98 and 106 pounds, respectively. Gary Rudolph gave New Milford its other title in the 136-pound division.

Englewood and Saddle Brook, in addition to Pascack Valley, had a pair of champions. The Maroon's winners were Yusi Sugimoto at 123 pounds and LeRoy Campbell at 157. Saddle Brook's winners were Willis McAleese at 115 and Carl Remmes at 168. Westwood (Drew Remignanti at 130), Hackensack (Bart Tarulli at 178) and River Dell with Tfank took home the other gold medals.
