

Pascack Hills tourney champ

WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP
— Pascack Hills won the team title for the second straight year last night, grabbing five individual championships in the Bergen County Coaches Association Wrestling Tournament.

The Cowboys, who outdistanced second-place Hackensack by 19 points, received victories from Tom Husted in the 108-pound class, John Connors at 129, Steve Risavy at 141, Bob Waldron at 148, and Mike Doscher at 170. In addition, Hills' Tim Catalfo was runnerup at 135.

Westwood, which finished third in the team scoring, boasted of two individual winners, including Bob Vogler in the 122-pound class. Vogler was voted the tournament's outstanding wrestler after scoring pins in all four of his matches, none of which lasted into the final period.

Two of last year's champions were repeaters while a third, Glen Candrilli of Hackensack, was upset in the final round. Art Kubo of River Dell, 3:41 of the 188-pound title bout.

HUSTED, the Pascack Hills sophomore who won the regional championship last year, had the roughest time of all the Cowboy champions. Mike DeRiso, North Bergen's senior cocaptain, took Husted into overtime of their 108-pound bout before succumbing 8-1. The match was tied, 8-8, at the end of regulation.

Hackensack, runnerup for the third consecutive year, had one winner, Walt Mendoza at 101 pound. Other individual winners were Bruce Surage of Passaic Valley at 135 pounds and Don Leenig of Westwood at 158.
